Reading and Sharing on readings for the month

Cindy read Tradition 9 – "AA as such ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve

Ehra discussed Chapter 4 from the service manual which focuses on the are assembly processes

Group Sharing

Ehra from Randall reports that Randall is still struggling to find it's footing in a zoom world-no interest from group members

Kate from Wilbraham reports that they continue to zoom. Low attendance at early beginners meeting

Ali from Chapter 2 reports their zoom meeting is still going ok-no use of physical building until the earliest time being January

Cindy from Cold Spring reports low attendance at the meeting-they were finally able to agree to make a donation to the pie chart

Visitors Reports

Paul H our delegate reported that a concept called Fellowship New Vision is a program designed to incorporate all of tracking of AA functions but it has not been going smoothly. The Accessibility area of AA is working on American Sign Language and a process called CART for hearing impaired members. GSO has been getting a high amount of donations to keep to moving during this pandemic. Contact Paul at delegate@area31aa.org for information on how to access those resources.
