Group Sharing

John K from Randall reports all their incoming/outgoing commitments are filled for 2021. Doing well. Attendance is good.

Tony from Belchertown reports that they are doing well with great attendance.

Jen from Cold Springs reports that they are doing well. Donated to the pie.

Jen also reports for South Hadley that they are doing well with good attendance.

Alli from Ludlow reports that they are doing well. Contributed $200 to the pie. Doing incoming/outgoing commitments. Celebrating their 32nd anniversary on 10/26 with food at 6:30 and two speakers at 7:30 p.m.

Chris from Morning Light reports that they are doing well. Celebrating their anniversary on 10/16 at 8:00 a.m.

Savanna from Do or Die reports that they haven't donated to the pie this month. Doing well. Good attendance. Discussing going back to hybrid style.

John from Wilbraham Men's reports they are doing well. Their meeting time has changed from 8 p.m. to 7 p.m. Has been updated on the intergroup website.

Visitors Reports

Paul reports that as of 10/1 the Area 31 is open but will also be virtual. New service manual is coming out online 10/5. Available on AA.org. Appears virtual AA is here for good. Becoming part of the service structure. Virtual groups can register with whatever location their chair is based out of. Mass State Convention is on Zoom on 11/13 and 11/14. Concept meetings are live now.

Charlie reports that they need new intergroup members. Many members are phasing out of their commitment. Elections on 11/11. Intergroup is dipping into their prudent reserve. Donations are down since meetings are starting in person again.

Old Business

Discussed how to get more GSRs.

New Business

Discussed hosting of the Fall Assembly. All GSRs for District 5 should be present and recruit their group members to participate. Discussed food and beverage.

Next month's readings and discussion

John K will read Tradition 11.

Savanna will read Concept 9.

Next month's meeting will be Monday, November 1 @ 7:30PM.

Meeting adjourned at 8:30 PM
